THE OLD CLOCK.

Oh! the old, old clock, of the household stock,
Was the brightest thing and neatest;
Its hands though old, had a touch of gold,
And its chime rang still the sweetest.
'Twas a monitor, too, though its words were few,
Yet they lived, though nations altered;
And its voice, still strong, warned old and young,
When the voice of friendship faltered!
"Tick, tick," it said—"quick, quick to bed—
For ten I've given warning;
Up, up, and go, or else, you know,
You'll never rise soon in the morning."

A friendly voice was that old, old clock,
As it stood in the corner smiling,
And blessed the time with a merry chime,
The wintry hours beguiling;
But a cross old voice was that cross old clock,
As it called at daybreak boldly,
When the dawn looked gray o'er the misty way,
And the early air blew coldly;
"Tick, tick," it said—"quick, out of bed,
For five I've given warning;
You'll never have health, you'll never get wealth,
Unless you're up soon in the morning."

Still hourly the sound goes round and round,
With a tone that ceases never;
While tears are shed for the bright days fled,
And the old friends lost forever!
Its heart beats on—though hearts are gone
That warmer beat and younger;
Its hands still move—though hands we love
Are clasped on earth no longer!
"Tick, tick," it said—"to the church-yard bed,
The grave hath given warning—
Up, up, and rise, and look to the skies,
And prepare for a heavenly warning!"

PIXLEY ON THE GOVERNMENT.

We publish the following letter from Frank Pixley, the erratic Attorney General of this State. It will be perceived that he takes, as he says, a common sense view of the Government as it now stands, and the letter coming from one of the Lord's annointed, we have no choice but to accept it as the doctrine of the party which at present administers the functions of government:

EDITOR BULLETIN:—When I wrote to your journal an article upon the Legal Tender question, over my own signature, you prefixed it with the term "Tirade." You added to it the inquiry why State officers do not receive their pay in Legal Tender notes; and finally, you admit the criticism of an anonymous writer and head his communication "Pixley on the Rampage" It would be affectation for me to be surprised at this treatment, because such is newspaporial usage—such is the courtesy of the press. I am, however, used to it—rather like it; and so long as you will permit me the use of your columns for reply, will endeavor to stand it.

In answer to the suggestion that I am unwilling to receive my salary in Government paper, I now say I have only received from the State Treasury my salary for twenty days, and will gladly take my compensation for services in notes at 5 per cent. premium, for the balance of my official term.

Your correspondent "Hope Not" (in his communication published 30th September) styles my suggestion of the issue of Legal Tender notes as under the "war-making power" a "funny theory." If Hope Not sees anything in this war funny, I do not. If he regards the assumption of unusual and dangerous powers by the Government at this time of danger as funny, I do not see it.

From what power arises the Legal Tender notes? They are an innovation upon the currency of the Government. This right to create such a currency with the Legal Tender clause was never before claimed by any statesman, so far as I have ever heard. It was repudiated by the framers of the Constitution and by all the Constitutional expounders whose opinions I have ever been able ascertain. It was passed in Congress in defiance to the opinion and in opposition to the judgment of its most distinguished law members. Fessenden, Collamer, Sumner, Trumbull, Cowan and others deemed the clause illegal and impolitic. Yet it became the law by a decisive majority, and its passage was urged and put upon the broad ground of NECESSITY. The rebellion existed, and means were necessary for its suppression. The Government adopted this mode of meeting the financial requirements of the campaign. Congress sanctioned it and it became the law. What law? I answer "martial law"—the "law of self-preservation"—the law of absolute necessity—a law which may be sustained by the civil tribunals on the ground of necessity and self-preservation, which underlies and over-rides all constitutions; and when civil tribunals refuse to sustain the Government, an appeal lies from the civil to the military power, and is enforced, not by the painted baton of a marshal, but by the bayonets of a battalion.

What right had Mr. Lincoln to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to set at naught the decision of a Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, constituting himself a judge of the necessity of the act?—a writ of right, older than constitutions, held sacred and inviolate against the usurpation of kings, as old as the common law, endeared by every tradition of liberty. It was the act of a military dictator; and no Roman Proconsul ever performed an act more arbitrary. It was right; and why? Because it was required for the safety of the republic, and all loyal men of the nation have applauded the deed. Had Stonewall Jackson been captured in Maryland, should a county judge have given him his liberty because he had not been arrested on information, presented by indictment, tried by a jury, and convicted according to law?

Our Constitution never contemplated a rebellion of the magnitude that now threatens the very existence of the Government. It may do for peace, but it does not do for war; and the sooner that fact becomes a recognized one, the better for the Nation. I think I have observed in this State that the most disloyal of its citizens are loudest-mouthed for the Constitution. Those who would destroy the Union bray loudest for the "Constitution as it was;" they would tie the arms of Government with the red-tape of civil restrictions. To them the abolition of slavery, (the accursed cause of this most accursed revolt,) as a means of striking a blow at the rebellion, is unconstitutional; and so it is—except as a war measure. To them the freedom of the press means a lisence to give information to the enemy, to discourage enlistment, to slander the Government, to paralyze the energy of military leaders. Freedom of speech they claim to be constitutional up to the overt act. Their cowardice prevents them going further. Yet the loyal man, who loves the Union first and the Constitution next, is willing that a patriotic President should assume all the powers necessary for the preservation of the art that holds the Constitution. The Union first: traditions, parchments, civil rights and legal forms, next.

Whether Government is bettered by the issue of Legal Tender notes, neither Hope Not nor myself are to judge. The Government has issued them, and with them has hired 600,000 men to take up arms in her defense at $13 per month, and has said that the paper in which they are paid shall serve their necessities, in the maintenance of their families and in the payment of their debts as legal currency; and, in the language of my first communication, I repeat that "any systematic attempt to depreciate Government paper is treason." It is treason to discourage enlistments; the person doing it is liable to arrest without warrant, to imprisonment without trial, and as to him the writ of habeas corpus is suspended. Is it not "discouraging enlistments" to go to the recruiting station and say to the soldier, "The Legal Tender notes in which you will be paid are worthless, are illegally issued, and when the war ceases, the Courts will declare them of no value?"

Hope Not asks, "How is the Government bettered so long as the people retain the power of fixing their own prices upon their own property or their own labor? Why does not the Government, if the paper with pictures is equivalent to gold, force the people to hand over their gold in exchange for paper?" So the Government will do when the necessity comes. When a man is drafted for military service, he is compelled to fight at the compensation fixed by Government. If the Government needs gold to carry on the war, it will take it and give pictures for it. If it needs private property for public use, it will take it. There is no private liberty and there is no private property when a government needs men and means for war. Not the hundreds of millions of private bank paper, nor the "marble palaces of Wall street" that so dazzle the vision of Hope Not, can be permitted to stand in the way of this war, for the war must go on although private bankers fail and bank palaces crumble.

Hope Not says there is no difference whether we count from a paper standard or a gold standard—whether we consider gold as merchandise at premium or paper as merchandise at discount. I say there is a very great difference. First, more paper will be put in circulation than there is gold in use as a medium. Gold has an intrinsic value, and therefore property belongs to the classification of merchandise.

All the loyal States except California have adopted the paper as currency, and for us to maintain a different attitude is to give an advantage to the importer and dealer in exchange over the consumer. This permits the San Francisco importing merchant to grow rich at the expense of the jobber and country merchant by the difference of currency alone. California is a gold-bearing State, and the only one in the Union, and every miner is interested in getting for gold all it is worth as a merchandise. If a California miner sends his dust to the Mint, has it coined and sends it East to-day, with $100 he buys $128 of Legal Tender notes, which he may turn into bonds at 6 per cent. interest. If he sells it in San Francisco he can only buy $108 of Legal Tender notes. The middle man, the dealer in exchange, the importer, by keeping up this system, robs the gold producer of 15 per cent. of his earnings.

I presume I have been misinformed as to the action of the Chamber of Commerce. I made the statement in conviction of the truth.

Now, then, Mr. Editor, these are my views; I ask for them only the consideration to which they are entitled. I have not intended to write a "Tirade," or to get upon a "rampage"—would rather be deemed a fool than "funny;" and if any further replies are to be made over anonymous signatures, I respectfully submit, they should be free from reflections personal to myself. I think you will see the propriety of this when you reflect that my opponent is shielded by a nom de plume, while I write over my own signature. FRANK M. PIXLEY.

Attacks by Indians on the Immigrant Trains.

The Nevada Territory papers continue to give accounts of attacks by the Indians on the immigrants. The Silver Age, in noticing the arrival at Carson City of some trains, remarks:

Louis Swarens and family, Richard Woods and family, Thomas Craig and family, and W. R. Bell, John Bell and Samuel Cory, camped in town on September 30th. They are from Linn and Hardin counties, Iowa, and have 4 wagons, 10 horses and 2 mules, all in good condition, which have been driven through since the 12th of May. They came over the Lander Cut-off with a train of 29 wagons and about 45 men, through to City Rocks. At the mouth of City Rock Canon, they were attacked about noon by from 75 to 100 Indians—partly mounted, and armed with good guns which shot accurately 350 yards. They corraled the teams, threw up ditches, and left the loose stock—some 43 head—outside. The Indians made two efforts to get these cattle, but were repulsed in the first attempt. The next time they were successful, and went about three-quarters of a mile away and had a grand dance over it. They then surrounded the train again and kept up a brisk fire till dark, and then at intervals all night. Next morning the Indians held a council on the bluff, and while thus parleying, a part of the men in the train went out on horses, followed by some on foot, and drove the Indians over the ridge. The train then came on, having lost about 50 head of their stock and 2 persons wounded. The Indians followed through the canon and came near killing some of the men.

These gentlemen inform us that a party of 7 packers from Wallamette Valley, Oregon, were attacked in the same canon and one man named James Blue was killed. A Mr. Lee had his pony shot from under him, and he with the balance of the party escaped by breaking through the Indian ranks, leaving everything behind them. They were four days without any food but a little bacon. They had been to Salmon river and were on their way to the States; they came on with our informants, and one of them, Charles Johnson, took stage for California and will go to Los Angeles.

Mr. Waterhouse, one of the survivors from the Smith or Warren county train came to our informants' camp on the fourth day after they had been attacked. He reported that his train had all been killed but himself at or near the same canon. But it appears evident that part of them were saved by the Mormons after they had wandered off southward and came near the settlements on the Salt Lake and Humboldt road. There was 11 wagons in the Warren county or Smith train, and about 16 horses, which were taken, and the flour, beds, etc., were destroyed. Five persons were killed.

The Territorial Enterprise of 1st October, in speaking of the immigration, says:

One of the five wagons which will remain in Virginia City is in charge of a man from Story county, Iowa, who started across the plains on the 5th of May last, in company with a large train composed principally of emigrants from his own section. From him we learn the following particulars: When in the vicinity of Raft river, this side of Fort Hall, the train was attacked in broad daylight by a large body of Snake Indians. The emigrants, taken entirely by surprise—for they had apprehended no trouble—made but a feeble resistance, and retreated with a loss of six men and one woman of their party. The Indians also captured the teams belonging to thirteen wagons, together with a large number of loose cattle and horses. The names of those killed in the affray are as follows: Chas. Bulwinkle from New York, William Moats, George Adams and Elizabeth Adams, and three others whose names our informant had forgotten. The survivors were overtaken in the afternoon by a train numbering 111 wagons, which brought them through to Humboldt.

They occasionally discovered the dead bodies of emigrants by the roadside; at one time 12 corpses were found, at another 4, and at another 2—all minus their scalps. They also saw the wrecks of many wagons destroyed by the Indians. Shortly after the sufferers by the fight recorded above had joined the large train, it was also fired into in the night by a party of Snake Indians, but the latter, finding themselves pretty warmly received, drew off without taking a scalp.

About a week before these events transpired, a party of emigrants numbering 40 persons was attacked near City Rocks by the same tribe of uncivilized pirates. Five young ladies were carried off, and, it is thought, women and children in all to the number of 15. All the men were killed except one, who made his escape and arrived at Humboldt about the 20th of September. This train was called the "Methodist Train," which was not altogether inappropriate, since the whole party knelt down and began to pray as soon as the attack was commenced. Every train which has passed over that portion of the route in the vicinity of City Rocks since the 1st of August has had trouble with the Indians. When our informant left Humboldt several wagons had just arrived whose sides and covers had been transformed into magnified nutmeg-graters by Indian bullets. The Snakes corraled the train, when a fight ensued, which lasted 48 hours. The whites cut their way out finally and escaped. We could not learn the number of killed and wounded in this battle.

The Enterprise of the same date also says;

L. F. Yates, who arrived in Virginia City a few days since from Pike's Peak, has given us the following particulars of a fight his train had on the 8th of last August, about one and a half miles this side of the junction of the Lander's Cut off and Fort Bridger roads. Their train consisted of 15 wagons and 40 men, with a number of women and children. The train was attacked while passing along a ravine by a party of Indians being concealed in among a thick growth of poplar bushes. When the attack commenced, most of the front wagons were some 80 rods in advance. They formed in corral, and intrenched behind their wagons, refused the slightest aid to those who were struggling with the savages in the rear. The party thus left to fight their way through the ambushed Indians numbered but nine men, and there were but four guns with which to maintain the battle. Five of the nine were killed and one wounded. The names of the killed are as follows: Parmlee, James Steele, James A. Hart, Rufus C. Mitchell, from Central City, Colorado Territory, and McMahan, residence unknown. The name of the man wounded is Frank Lyman. He was shot through the lungs—recovered. The 31 men who were hidden snugly behind their wagons, with a single honorable exception, refused to render the slightest assistance to those who were fighting for their lives and the lives of their families so near them. Although they had 27 guns they refused to lend a single gun, when at one time four men went to ask assistance. The cowards all clung to their arms, and lay trembling behind their wagons. A man named Perry, or Berry, was the only one who had sufficient courage to attempt to render his struggling friends any assistance. He was shot in the face before reaching the rear wagons, and was carried back to the corral. The fight lasted nearly two hours, and some seven or eight Indians killed, as at various times they charged out of the bushes on their ponies. Several Indian horses were killed, and at length the few left alive fought through to where their 30 heroic friends (?) were corraled, leaving the killed and two wagons in possession of the Indians. 30 bigger cowards and meaner men than those above mentioned never crossed the plains. We are certain that every man of them left the States for fear of being drafted into the army.

A SCOUNDREL—PASS HIM ROUND.—Letters have been received in Chicago implicating Lieut. John Schilling, of the 57th Illinois Infantry, Col. Baldwin, in a most rascally and outrageous swindle. A little over two months ago he obtained a furlough to visit home, and when he left Corinth he was entrusted with $6,000 by his comrades to distribute among their families in Chicago and vicinity. He has not been heard from since, and complaints are being showered into Superintendent Bradley's office by the soldiers' wives, who have received letters from their husbands in relation to the matter. There is little doubt that the heartless rascal has decamped with his ill gotton spoils; but wherever he goes the curses of impoverished families will follow him.—Peoria (Ill.) Transcript.

THURSDAY, : : OCT. 16, 1862.

WAGON ROAD.—By an advertisement we notice that the Directors of the wagon road across the mountains via this place, invited sealed proposals for constructing two sections of the road about thirty miles from this place. The company however, fail to tell those who may hand in their bids that any contracts will be awarded. It appears to be the object of this company to merely ascertain the cost of building the road, and then sell to some one who will invest the money. They have been dodging around in this way now for the last year. In the winter, they tell us that they will build the road in the summer, and in the fall they advertise for "sealed proposals" to do the work in the winter. They have pursued this course until the people in this section have lost all confidence in their protestations, and we think very justly. We have been frequently told that there were parties in San Francisco that were anxious to build the road, and but for this "company on paper" with the Governor at its head, would take hold and build it. This bar, however, we are glad to learn, will no longer be respected, and if this great "Wild Cat" company neglects operations any longer the capitalists above referred to will take the matter in hand, and push the work to a speedy conclusion.

THEATRE.—Our people enjoyed quite a treat last week in witnessing the performance of Mrs. Leighton and troupe. The company performed to good houses three nights, but the most interesting dramatic display was reserved for the last, in which Mr. C. B. Plummer, our Postmaster, took the part of "Claude Melnotte" in the "Lady of Lyons," to which he did full justice. Indeed, he performed his part better we have seen in the State. He was frequently greeted with applause from the audience, and at the end of the piece was called before the curtain. We begin to think he has mistaken his occupation in cooping himself up in a country postoffice, when he might, with a little practice, gain histrionic fame second to none in the State.

WE call attention to the letter of Attorney General Pixley published on the outside of this paper. It is an able, sound and logical document, and will bear reading and reflection. The writer takes the position that the government as founded by our fathers no longer exists; that it is conducted entirely "according to circumstances," and no one has the right any longer to criticize the action or conduct of those in power. Mr. Pixley is an accepted expounder of the Black Republican doctrine, and we suppose, if he has become disgusted with the workings of the party, or if those above him have departed from the faith, he should be allowed to give his reasons for so doing, and we take the liberty of giving his letter entire.

DEMOCRATIC RESOLUTIONS.—We ask the perusal of the Minnesota resolutions. It will be seen that they are such as any patriot ought and will subscribe to. Being purely for the Union, the Constitution and the Laws, and opposed, as of necessity they would be, to all isms, more especially to abolitionism and Black Republicanism. They condemn the wholesale robbery that has been practiced by those appointed to husband the means of the government, and gives adherence to the principles and doctrines of Jackson, Madison and Jefferson.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday, 8th inst., a man by the name of Schuldtheis, while engaged in hauling wood down Steep Hollow, received a severe injury from the end of a broken limb, the sharp point of which penetrated the anti helix of the ear. The wound bled profusely for twenty-four hours, at the expiration of which time he called on Dr. Jones who stopped the flow and dressed the wound. The patient is doing well.

SOLE TRADERS.—We publish in another place the act amendatory of an act in relation to married women as sole traders, which those interested will do well to notice, as the time expires on the 1st of November to take advantage of it. Those who have been acting as sole traders under the old law will no longer be allowed to do so, unless they conform to the recent amendment. Take heed and be wise.

LAW JOURNAL.—We acknowledge the receipt of this new weekly. It is edited by W. H. R. Wood Esq., and is devoted to law, science, education and the arts. Subscription price, $10 per annum, and the editor says he will take postage stamps, treasury notes, plug tobacco, grapes and melons in payment for the valuable "hebdomadal pabulum" which he intends furnishing his readers. He is bound to succeed, as all the lawyers will take it.

AMADOR DISPATCH.—This reliable paper has changed hands, and now comes to us under the guardianship of Messrs. Payne & Penry. The paper, typographically, looks well, and is filled with readable and interesting matter. We wish the new proprietors every success.

HOW IT WORKS.—It has been indignantly denied by Republicans of the Greely school, that there has been any strong prejudices exhibited by white soldiers against black regiments. A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Hilton Head, where the experiment was tried, says: "In this department the project of arming negroes has met with marked disfavor. The pride of the white soldier has been offended, and his prejudices aroused to a bitter extent, by this seeming elevation of the African to a level with himself; and no occasion has been lost to express his disgust, both by word and act, when opportunity favored."

SEWARD.—A correspondent of a New York paper, writing from Albany, N. Y., September 10th, says: The belief is current in Republican circles that Mr. Seward will soon retire from the Cabinet and take a mission to Europe. Should this prove true, a complete reconstruction of the Cabinet will take place, and it is believed a more conservative element will form its composition. It is thought that Gen. Banks will be Secretary of war.

GOOD.—The Boston Post gets off the following gentle hint: "What a delightful sight it would be to see Greely, Phillips, Sumner, Wade and Wilson drafted as private soldiers and, knapsacked and musketed, put in the forlorn hope where they could fight to the death for the negro they love so well. Fancy their hand to hand contest with the foe!" That sight will never gladden the eyes of the present generation.

DECEASED.—Dr. E. S. Cooper, a well known surgeon in San Francisco, died in that city October 4th, as we learn by a telegraphic dispatch. He was buried October 15th.

Alcatraz is daily receiving boarders.

ARCHBISHOP Allemany, of San Francisco, has published a card, in which he says some imposter claiming to be a high church dignitary, has appeared at Carson City, and warns all Catholics to look out for him. He says that Father Patrick Menoque is the only Catholic clergyman in Nevada Territory.

Joseph A. Oliver, who killed his wife, Jane Oliver, in Merced county last July, was on the 30th of September convicted at Snellings, of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to 30 years in the State Prison. Oliver is a native of Newburn, N. C., and is 34 years of age. His wife was but 19, and it was in a fit of jealousy that he killed her.

HOWLAND Flat, Sierra county, was burned on Sunday evening at half-past 9 o'clock. The fire originated in Woolf's saloon. There was a sparring exhibition on the second floor, and a large crowd broke through the floor and upset the camphene lamps on the ground floor and set fire to the building. The whole business portion of the town is destroyed. George Keyser is known to be burned.

SOME four or five weeks ago a little boy named Frank Waldron, aged two and a half years, was missed from his parents' residence, Humboldt county, and the whole neighborhood turned out and searched several days, and being unable to find him, it was concluded that he must have been stolen by Indians. But lately traces of his remains have been found, and the parents and neighbors are satisfied the child was devoured by a bear.

COL. E. J. C. KEWEN, Assemblyman elect from Los Angeles county, and Maj. G. P. Gillis former Clerk in the Secretary of State's office, during Governor Downey's administration, have been arrested and sent to Fort Alcatraz for treason.

EASTERN NEWS.

DATES TO THE 12th OCT.

WASHINGTON, October 11th.—Intelligence received yesterday in official quarters says the Sioux in Minnesota have ceased hostilities and are surrendering, and that the military authorities were punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties.

CHICAGO, October 11th.—An important reconnoissance crossed the Potomac at Nolan's Ford on the 8th, passing through Waterford, within two miles of Leesburg. At this point our troops captured a rebel wagon train, going from Leesburg to Winchester, in charge of a detachment of cavalry. Gen. Longstreet's official papers were found in the wagon. Ninety-six muskets, a number of tents and a large quantity of knapsacks and blankets were captured. The results of the reconnoissance were said to be most important.

LOUISVILLE, (midnight), Oct. 10th.—A Bardstown dispatch to Governor Robinson says: The rebels, on Wednesday night, October 8th, retreated towards Harrodsburg, Mercer county, twenty-nine miles south of Frankfort, and were hemmed in—Kirby Smith's detachment having become separated from the other rebel forces on Dick river. On Thursday morning we occupied an advantageous situation on all sides of the enemy. Our troops were in high spirits, and expected a complete victory.

Our loss in killed and wounded on Wednesday was fifteen hundred. The enemy's loss was considered much larger.

Reports of a severe battle on Thursday morning, October 9th, were brought by persons who left at seven o'clock that morning, when skirmishing had commenced, with some cannonading. Others who left the battl field this afternoon say the firing ceased at eight in the morning, and the remainder of the rebels were then making their way towards Harrodsburg, pursued by the Federal army.

The Tenth Ohio lost 282 killed and wounded on Wednesday, Gen. Rosseau's and Colonel Pope's wounds are slight. There are conflicting stories about General Little, some reporting him wounded and a prisoner.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 11th.—A portion of General Buell's baggage train was captured on the 9th, near Frankfort. We lost seventeen Government wagons and from ten to fifteen Sutlers' wagons. The capture is believed to have been effected by part of Kirby Smith's force. They are also reported to have captured five hundred stragglers from Simm's division.

LOUISVILLE, October 11th.—The Democrat of this morning learns that the battle on Wednesday, October 8th, was one of the fiercest on record. The forces under McCook and Rosseau were heavily outnumbered, but bravely and gallantly withstood the shock of twice their numbers till evening, when Wood's division came on the field on a run and with great shouting. The division made a charge, when the rebel columns broke and retreated. Our forces pursued them, fighting until night intervened. On Thursday morning the rebel army disappeared, having fallen back seven or eight miles. The field was covered with wounded, dying and dead, but we have not yet been able to ascertain the loss of the rebels. As near as can be ascertained the fight was not renewed on Thursday, but our forces were ready for a vigorous attack. From the disposition which has been made of one entire corps of the army and a division of another corps, we do not think it possible for the enemy to get beyond Stanford. We feel confident their retreat is cut off, and that they will be forced to fight with the greater portion if not the whole of Buell's army.

CAIRO, Oct. 11th.—The latest reports from Corinth say our loss reached two hundred killed and five hundred and fifty wounded. We have buried nearly two thousand rebels and have a thousand of their wounded. The general character of the wounds received by our men is slight, the enemy fighting mainly with muskets, while the rebel wounds are severe, inflicted mostly by grape and canister.

The Granada (Miss.) Appeal acknowledges a rebel defeat at Corinth and on the Hatchie, and says that Price and Van Dorn penetrated to the centre of the town, but that this was a part of Rosecrans' strategy. Rosecrans got them in a trap, and the result was they lost one entire brigade.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11th.—Information received in official quarters states that the rebels were still at Chambersburg at seven o'clock this morning. They showed a disposition to move towards Gettysburg, Adams county. We were pushing forward troops during the night and sending them as fast as possible. We have no force between Chambersburg and Hancock.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 11th.—This morning the rebels destroyed the machine shops and railway rolling stock of the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company, at Chambersburg, and burned the railroad bridge at Scotland, five miles east of Chambersburg. They have secured five hundred horses and also taken a large amount of Government clothing. A portson of their force moved at ten this morning in the direction of Gettysburg. It is impossible to learn fully what their intentions are. Means are being devised to capture the entire party.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12th.—Nashville is said to be surrounded by rebels, who are committing depredations. The Federals are on half rations. Provisions are quoted at fabulous prices. The rebels are said to have captured forty Federal foraging wagons below Nashville last week.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12th.—A Lebanon dispatch, which seems to be authentic, says: There was a great battle yesterday, much greater than Wednesday. We have no particulars further than that a rebel wagon train of a hundred and sixty wagons and a large number of prisoners were captured by Woolford's Federal Kentucky cavalry. The rebels are said to be retreating towards Camp Dick Robinson. Generals Cheatham and Polk are reported killed. Lexington is now entirely rid of rebel forces.

HARRITBURG, Oct. 13th.—The latest official accounts state that the rebels (Stuart's) have escaped. They crossed the Potomac near the mouth of the Monocacy, having marched ninety miles in twenty-four hours. General Pleasanton's forces araived at the river just as the rebels finished crossing. Pleasanton's forces marched seventy-eight miles in twenty-four hours.

SPEECH OF HORATIO SEYMOUR—The following is the San Francisco Herald's report of the remarks made in the late Democratic Convention at Albany, New York, by Horatio Seymour, on receiving the nomination for Governor:

Governor Seymour, after stating his unwillingness to accept the office under any other circumstances than those rendering it the duty of every man to do what was in his power to rescue the country in its present difficulties, referred to the Democratic Convention held less than two years ago in the same hall, to exhort the dominant party to submit the "Crittenden Compromise" to a vote of the people in order to avert the war. Seymour then reviewed at length the course of Congress, which refused the petition of the Democracy, and traced the history of events from the first battle of Bull Run down to the pledge made by Congress to prosecute the war for the restoration of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution. He then drew a picture of the subsequent action of Congress, which disregarded the wisdom of Solomon, "that it is an honor to a man to cease from strife, but a fool will be meddling." He alluded to the assaults made by Republican journals on the Administration, which Administration they charged with incompetency, corruption and unfaithfulness. He showed how the course of Congress had tended to unite the South and distract the North, for the Republican party had evinced a spirit of insubordination towards the Administration of its own creating. He reminded the Republican party that slavery was not the only thing in the Constitution, the overthrow of which would bring untold misery and suffering on the country. He argued that although the Republicans were not intentionally dishonest, they were not fitted to carry on the Government. They approved of the formation of impertinent meddling Committees, who push themselves into the very councils of our rulers. They propose to organize men outside of the authority of the law and of the constituted authorities. For one he (Seymour) spurned such committees, and would resist such illegal, revolutionary organizations if need be by force. While he admited that there were loyal men in the body of the Republican party, its leaders were dangerous and unwise men, and in its present situation it could not save the country. Seymour then stated the position of the Democratic party. They had and they would continue to loyally support the laws and authorities of the country. They would give the President all the men he called for to uphold the Government, execute the laws, put down the rebellion and gain a lasting peace. The Democratic party had been and would be loyal and obedient to the laws and Constitution of their country—not from fear, but patriotism. He warned, he implored the Republicans not to mistake the patriotism of the Democracy for fear. The Democratic party had hearts and arms strong enough to sweep away the cobweb system of terrorism and threats which seemed to be held over the heads of the people. The security of the public is in the loyalty and intelligence of that party, and upon that party the Government can at all times rely. The President has been far less embarrassed by Democrats than by Republicans. Seymour concluded by saying that the Democracy were confident in their cause, for they were battling for the Union, the Constitution and the laws.

THE DICTATOR, CAPT. ERICSON'S NEW SHIP. The "Dictator" is the name chosen by Captain Ericson for his monster iron-clad vessel, to which he is about to devote all his skill and energy. She will be of immense size and strength, longer than the Persia or Niagara, and bearing heavier and thicker armor than almost two ordinary ironclads. The side armor will be of the extraordinary dimensions of ten and a half feet thick; the wooden armor or "lining," being four feet by six feet thick, up and down. The ball that can penetrate nearly fifteen feet of solid matter, of which ten and a half will be iron, can hardly be moulded in the South. It would require all the bells in rebeldom to make it.—New York Evening Post, Sept. 8th.

THE New York Post urges the passage of a general bankrupt law by the next Congress, and says that at least one-third of the merchants of that city are insolvent. Only those who have Government contracts are making money.

Is 75 Per Cent. CHEAPER!

THAN ANY OTHER KIND OF ROPE—WHY?

BECAUSE, Compared with any other Rope of equal strength, it is from FOUR to SIX times MORE DURABLE!

BECAUSE, it is FORTY per cent LIGHTER!

BECAUSE, it is less than ONE-HALF the Diameter, and only ONE SIXTH of the BULK!

BECAUSE, it is FIVE TIMES the strength of the same size of the HEMP ROPE!

BECAUSE, it does not STRETCH or SHRINK, in dry or wet weather!

BECAUSE, it does not ABSORB WATER, and double its original WEIGHT!

BECAUSE, it is as PLIABLE as the other rope of equal strength.

Wire Rope is the ONLY KIND of Rope that can be used to ADVANTAGE, for Hoisting from deep shafts and inclined planes, for long Pump Ropes, Derrick Guy Ropes, Ferry Ropes, &c., &c. Those who have once given our Wire Ropes a trial, will USE NO OTHER, at any price.

A WORD TO THE AGED.—In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We endor to the aged Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, billious cholic, wind cholic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous headache chills and fever, tremens, prostration, and all the complaints special to the feebler sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. EVERY housekeeper experiences how difficult it is in making good bread and we therefore take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that to insure uniformly LIGHT, SWEET and NUTRITIOUS bread, it is only necessary to use REDDINGTON'S & Co.'s YEAST POWDERS, which in every respect excel all similar prepartions ever offered to the public. See advertisement in another column.

In calling the attention of the reader to the advertisement of Dr. J. C. Young, to be found in another part of this paper, we feel we are answering the dictates of honest conviction in pointing out to suffering humanity the honest and skilful medical practitioner. It is the duty of every man, whose knowledge places it in his power, to act as a guide to those who otherwise would unwittingly take a wrong path. Throughout the length and breadth of our fair State is spread the insidious seeds of a terrible disease. No need to be thus. No need to wear out a life of pain and anguish and in the end to fill a dishonored grave. Hesitate no longer unfortunate ones, but turn to the Doctor who alone can restore you, giving you in place of wasted energies and an impaired constitution, full health vigor and power.

Actuated by the wish to exert his powers to cure, he proves his honesty by the motto at once displaying his conviction of his capability, and showing his confidence in mankind, "No Cure no Pay." The Doctor's office is No. 751 Clay St. opposite the Plaza Hotel., Plaza, San Francisco. 45

THE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE OF DR L. J. Czapkay, is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are awarded to practitioners in this department of Medical science, and they occupy with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord, is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay, has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the leader in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorf, nearly opposite the building of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

More Secessionists Sent to Fort Alcatraz.

Yesterday afternoon, says the Bulletin of Saturday last, Colonel E. J. C. Kewen, member elect to the Assembly from Los Angles county, was taken ashore from the steamship Senator, by the Provost Guard under command of Lieut. Ropes, into the government-boat, and over to Fort Alcatraz, where the "secesh" member of the Legislature was placed in the quarters of Major McKay—the latter prisoner having to take worse ones. Colonel Kewen was born in Mississippi, and came here in 1849. He was once a Whig candidate for the attorney-generalship of this State, and another time for Congress. He is rather a flowery speaker, and to his weakness for sensational highfalutin he must attribute his present retirement. There are three charges against him—one for being a secessionist, another for uttering disloyal language against the Government at various times and places, and drinking to the health of Jeff Davis, and third, that he recently in a public speech apostrophized the American flag in such strains as these:

And thou once proud ensign of a free and happy people—how art thou fallen! Once loved and revered—now do I deride, despise and spit upon thee!

Colonel Kewen denies that he used the above language. He insists that he said, "now derided, despised and spat upon, by a portion of our people!"

During the trip up, Colonel Kewen rather thought it a good joke that he had his passage paid hither by the Government, as he had not the least doubt so soon as he arrived and saw General Wright, he would convince him of his loyalty, and, taking the oath, would stop all further proceedings against him. He was sadly mistaken. He may not see General Wright at all, and if he does, all his protestations of innocence will not move that officer from the plain line of his duty. He may not have the opportunity to take the oath and his seat in the Legislature, but will have every chance to do tall swearing in his cell at Alcatraz.

Major G. P. Gillis, arrested for treason by order of United States Marshal Rand about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Sacramento, came down last evening on the steamer Chrysopolis, in charge of Deputy-Marshal Tukey, and after sleeping in the Provost Guard house for the night, was taken over to Alcatraz this morning. Gillis was Collector of the Port of Benicia at one time, and Clerk in the office of Secretary of State during Governor Downey's term. He is said to have been one of the most undisguised traitors out of Dixie, and it is not long since he flourished a secession flag in Sacramento, dared anybody to take it from him, hurrahed for King Jeff and made the Capitol city fairly howl with his treason. He thought that he would sleep at the Russ House last night and take the oath and return by to-day's boat! Deluded mortal. He will remain in prison until orders are received from Washington.

An Act amendatory of and supplemental to an Act entitled an Act to authorize Married Women to transact Busines in their own names, as Sole Traders, passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one.

[Approved April 8, 1862.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section two of this Act is amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2. Any married woman, residing within this State, desirous to avail herself of the benefit of this Act, shall give notice thereof, by advertising, in some public newspaper of general circulation in the county in which she resides, for four successive weeks; provided, if any newspaper be published in said county, said publication shall be made in the paper so published in said county. Such notice shall set forth that it is her intention to make application to the District Court of said county, on the day therein named, for an order of said Court, permitting her to carry on business in her own name and on her own account, and it shall specifically set forth the nature of the business to be carried on. On the day named in the notice, or at such further time as the Court may appoint, on filing proof of publication, the Court shall proceed to examine the application, on oath, as to the reasons which induce her to make the application, and if it appear to the Court that a proper case exists, it shall make an order, which shall be entered on the minutes, and the applicant be authorized and empowered to carry on, in her own name, and on her own account, the business, trade, profession, or art, named in the notice; but the insolvency of the husband, apart from other causes tending to prevent his supporting his family, shall not be deemed to be sufficient cause for granting this application. Any creditor of the husband may oppose such application, and may show that it is made for the purpose of defrauding such creditor, and preventing him from collecting his debt, or will occasion such result, and if it shall so appear to the Court, the application shall be denied. On the hearing, witnesses may be examined on behalf of either party. Before making the order, the Court or Judge shall administer to the applicant the following oath:

"I, A. B., do in presence of Almighty God, truly and solemnly swear, that this application is made in good faith, for the purpose of enabling me to support myself and my children, (if the applicant have minor children,) and not with any view to defraud, delay, or hinder, any creditor or creditors of my husband; and that of the moneys so to be used, in said business, not more than five hundred dollars has come, either directly or indirectly, from my husband. So help me, God."

A certified copy of said order, with the said oath indorsed thereon, shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county where the business is to be carried on, in a book to be kept for such purpose.

SEC. 2. Section three of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 3. After the order has been duly made and recorded, as provided in the second section of this Act, the person therein named shall be entitled to carry on such business, in her own name, and the property, revenues, moneys, and credits, so invested, shall belong exclusively to such married woman, and shall not be liable for any debts of her husband; and said married woman shall be allowed all the privileges, and be liable to all legal processes, now or hereafter provided by law against debtors and creditors, and may sue, and be sued, alone, without being joined with her husband. But nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to authorize a married woman to carry on business in her own name, when the same is managed or superintended by her husband.

SEC. 3. Section five of this Act is hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. All persons now doing business as sole traders, under the law of which this is amendatory, shall have six months from and after the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, in which to give the notice and take the proceedings required by this Act; and if not done within that time, or if the application be denied by the Court, the right to transact business as a sole trader shall no longer exist; provided, however, that all property rightfully acquired by such sole trader, previous to that time, shall be held by her as her separate property.

Another Revolution Threatened.

The reading public has doubtless noticed with alarm the threatening tirades of the New York Press against the Administration. The abolition Jacobins, feeling their strength, seemed to have suddenly burst through all restraint, and with significant menaces have demanded of the President that their policy should be adopted by him, and that he should commit himself fully and at once to their control. To add force these demands they told Mr lincoln very plainly that unless he hearkened to them he would be in danger of being hurled from the Presidential chair. We confess the tone and temper of the radical press alarmed us. It was but the beginning of a manifestation of a dangerous, turbulent, and revolutionary spirit which we have feared from the beginning of our civil war. There was never a more dangerous element in any country than the abolition element in the North. It is unreasonable, tyrannical, fanatical and unpatriotic. It has brought about the irrepressible conflict and its main object in the prosecution of the war is, and has always been, the abolition of slavery. It has urged the President by entreaties and threats to pursue a radical policy. Impatient at delay it seems they resolved to force him to adopt their policy, and, in case he refused, they intended to rebel against his authority. Alarmed at their threatening attitude the President yielded and issued his emancipation proclamation. Had he refused to do so there is very little doubt in our mind that his own party, or at least the ultra portion of it, would have raised the standard of revolt and rebelled against the Government. The Washington correspondence of the New York World, of date September 16th, says:

"STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS—CONSPIRACY OF THE RADICALS TO DEPOSE THE PRESIDENT.—Most astounding disclosures have been made here to-day, by letters and verbal communications from prominent politicians, showing that a vast conspiracy has been set on foot by the radicals of the Fremont faction to depose the present Administration and place Fremont at the head of a provisional government; in other words, to make him military dictator. One of these letters asserts that one feature of the conspiracy is the proposed meeting of Governors of the Northern States to request President Lincoln to resign, to enable them to carry out their scheme. The writer, in conclusion, says Gov. Andrews and Senator Wilson are at work, and they are probably at the bottom of the movement. From other well informed sources it is learned that the 50,000 independent volunteers proposed to be raised under the auspices of the New York Union Defense Committee were intended to be a nucleus for the organization of this Fremont conspiracy. It was the purpose of those engaged in this movement to have this force organized and armed by the Government and placed under the independent command of their chosen leader, and then to call upon all sympathizers to unite with them in arms to overthrow the present administration and establish in its stead a military dictatorship, to carry out the peculiar policy they desire the Government should execute. Failing in this, it is stated that a secret organization has been inaugurated, the members of which are known by the name of Roundhead. It is intended that this organization shall number 200,000 men in arms, who shall raise the standard of the conspirators and call Gen. Fremont to the command. They expect to be joined by two thirds of the army of the Union now in the field, and that eventually 1,000,000 of armed men will be gathered around their standard. This startling disclosure is vouched for by men of high repute in New York and other Northern States. It is the last card of those who have been vainly attempting to drive the President into the adoption of their own peculiar policy."

If there were no corroborating evidence of the truth of the foregoing we would be inclined to regard it as a sensation canard; but when we consider the tone of the Times and the Tribune, and the significant threats used, together with the movement to raise fifty thousand troops for Fremont, and the President's declaration to the Border States Congressmen that he was sorely pressed by the abolitionists, and also the unscrupulous and dangerous character of this element, we are prepared to give full credence to the story. But the President yielded and the plan may be abandoned for the present. He has taken a dangerous step, at the risk of incurring the displeasure of the conservatives, in order to obtain a truce with the radicals. He will not succeed, however. They will enjoy the emancipation morsel for a moment, but it will not satisfy their depraved and morbid appetites. They will not let him rest. He will be besieged again with the same perseverance and relentless ferocity, with like threats to goad him into acquiescence. It is time the people were reflecting soberly and carefully upon the condition of the country. Surely, enough has transpired to convince them that all is not gold that glitters. These men, who are plotting to overthrow the Government and to declare Fremont a dictator, are the loudest in their protestations of devotion to the Union. Under the garb of loyalty they are plotting treason. We regret that the President has yielded to them. If they are plotting against Government he might as well let their wicked designs come to the surface at once. If he will only pursue the plain and beaten path of duty, adhering rigidly to the Constitution and the laws, he need not fear the fanatics. In case of a disturbance there would be such a ground swell of the lovers of the Constitution as would sweep them from the face of the earth. We have always believed and we still believe that, if the Union is saved, the Democrats must do it. We have never trusted the patriotism of the abolitionists, and, if we read the signs of the times aright, before peace is restored to the country, the President will have to break away from the ultraists and repose upon the conservative masses of his countrymen. It may be that Democrats may yet have to throw themselves into the breach and save the Goverment from being overthrown by the loud howling abolition patriots.—Express.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN BERKSHIRE COUNTY, MASS.—One of the most shocking tragedies recorded for a long time occurred in the town of Otis, Berkshire county, (Mass.,) lately, and the horrible facts attending it have yet been only partially developed. It appears, however, that the wife of George Jones, accompanied by her two children, started for some berries in a piece of woods about half a mile from the house, at two o'clock on a Sunday afternoon, and not returning promptly a search was instituted, which, however, did not result successfully until the following afternoon. Their dead bodies were then found, the woman with her brains knocked out, her person bearing evidence of the grossest outrages. The children, a boy and girl, aged two and four years respectively, were evidently murdered by dashing their heads against a rock. The bodies were intended to be hidden by covering up with leaves, but the designs of the murderers were fortunately frustrated. Mrs Jones was a respectable woman, only twenty-two years of age, and there is of course much regret and indignation concerning her sad fate and that of her two children. There have yet been no arrests, but there is strong suspicion against some negroes who were seen in the vicinity of the murder Sunday afternoon.

TRIAL OF BIRKBECK.—The trial of Birkbeck, for the killing of Echels, at Moore's Flat, a few months ago, was commenced in the District Court on Wednesday of last week. The following are the facts in the case, as far as we have been able to learn them. It appears that Birkbeck had some words with Echels which ended in blows, Birkbeck getting the worst of it. Birkbeck then told Echels that he would kill him, and made his boasts on the street, in the presence of a good many men several times. Six weeks after the fight, he proceeded to Echels' cabin, with a large bowie knife, and not seeing any one there stabbed Echels to the heart, remarking when he had done the deed, that he wouldn't take $500 for that job." Unfortunately for him, a Mr. Gibson was sitting in the cabin when he perpetrated this wilful murder, unperceived by Birkbeck. This is the most cold blooded murder ever perpetrated in this county. For six weeks, as Birkbeck says himself, scarcely anything else entered his head, but the manner of committing this dead. His wife had dissuaded him form doing it sooner than he did. Mr. Birkbeck, by his looks, is the last man we should pick out for a murderer, a man who is on the verge of the grave. He is about 60 years of age.—Nevada Transcript.

THE Democrats of New York have nominated Horatio Seymour as their candidate for Governor.

TREASURER ASHLEY'S SPECULATION.—The papers of the State are justly indignant at the penurious and disgraceful conduct of the Black Republican State Treasurer, in buying up the paper of the Government in order to pay California's quota of the Direct Tax. In order that he might manufacture a reputation for shrewdness, he was willing that the fair fame and honor of the State should suffer in the eyes of all who respect fair dealing and honorable business transactions by entering market in competition with usurers and pawn-brokers to buy up, at a discount, Legal Tender Notes to pay the State's indebtedness. The people have paid this money into the State Treasury in gold and silver, but Ashley, not being averse to turning "an honest penny" starts on a speculating tour to defraud the Government of a few thousand dollars. The San Francisco Morning Call in speaking of this matter, says:

Through the picayune economy of Mr. Ashley, the Treasurer of State, the great and opulent commonwealth of California stands disgraced before her sister States. Of course Secretary Chase, in reply to Mr. Cheeseman, told the United States Sub-Treasurer here to accept Legal Tender Notes in payment of the balance due on California's quota of the Direct Tax, and Ashley will consequently liquidate, in paper bought up at a discount, a claim to meet which the people of the State had furnished gold. Ashley says he consulted with several State officers before he sent agents into the market to purchase Government paper. As far as we can learn he consulted with no one but Warren, the Controller, whose exalted ideas of finance tallied exactly with those of the State Treasurer. These two officials put their heads together and agreed that it would be a good thing for California to peddle her reputation on the street corners in order to save a few dollars. Two notorious Shylocks, who became famous in Sacramento as scrip and warrant shavers, were employed at a round commission to perfect the plan. These worthies at once placed a shingle outside their store, and in a few days the whole $53,000 was purchased and handed over to Ashley. Before the Governor was made aware that Ashley was about to humiliate California in the eyes of the world by this shabby transaction, he, in his capacity of Commissioner to examine the State funds, refused to count the Legal Tender Notes—which had found their way into the Treasury he knew not how—as cash dollars; but insisted that they should be specified as so much Government paper. Now that Ashley's picayune transaction has become public, the Governor and the rest of the State officers feel very much outraged at the conduct of the Treasurer and the Controller. They feel exactly like every loyal citizen in the State feels, that California has been disgraced and humiliated by a policy which is as mean as it was unwarranted.

CONTINENTAL.—Hildreth's History of the United States records that the whole amount of the Continental currency at the close of the Revolution was $200,000,000. Congress paid $5,000,000, or one bollar in forty of it. That is all that has ever been paid.

A COUPLE of soldiers were recently arrested in New Orleans for throwing buckets of tar over each other. It was a pitch battle.

HALL'S SARSAPARILLA,
Yellow Dock and Iodide of Potass.

This celebrated preparation has stood the test of six years with the California public—who are justly considered as a community the most intelligent in the world—during which period we are proud to say it has given more than satisfaction:—it has become the household remedy for Californians particularly, who, from much exposure, bad food, imperfect shelter and irregular habits, suffer more from

RHEUMATISM

Than any community in the world; and we are safe in saying that as a rule, California Rheumatism cannot be cured thoroughly without the use of

HALL'S SARSAPARILLA,

It is the only preparation that will cure Rheumatism, as thousands can testify who have tried the medicines of the best Doctors in the country, without receiving any benefit therefrom. It all cases it gives immediate relief when taken as per directions on the bottle.

FEMALES

in delicate health would do well to try the virtues of this remedy, as it insures a peculiar beneficial influence upon the vascular system not obtained by any other remedy. It quickly removes from the blood and other fluids the impurities of unhealthy secretions, which engenders a long train of diseases, such as Scrofula, Ulcurs, Boils, Blotches and Pimples on the face and body, Humors, Pustules, Sores, Tumors, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Scald Head, Swelled Neck, Liver Complaint, Lumbago, Chronic Sore Eyes, Gout, Cancer, Enlargement of the Ovaries, and diseases of the Heart, are cured by the renovating action of this truly valuable medicine. It acts like a charm, purifying the blood of all morbid and corrupt matter, and at the same time strengthens and invigorates the whole system.—Salt Rheum will positively yield to the medical powers of this remedy, in conjunction with Hall's Rosemary Cerate, it has cured cases of over twenty years standing, the disease covering nearly the whole surface of the body.

MERCUIAL DISEASES

and all diseases arising from lead, mercury, and arsenic, such as aching pains in the bones, dimness of sight, low fevers, and worst of all, mercurial Rheumatism, are relieved by one bottle of this remedy. Night sweats, wasting of flesh, spitting of blood, habitual costiveness, and piles—thousands can testify to the efficacy of Hall's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock and Iodide of Potass in the above named diseases. It increases the appetite and the flesh, gives a healthy tone and vigor to the whole system, building up a new constitution. As the constitution is the blood and this remedy thoroughly purifies, cleanses, and purges it of impure matters, and at the same time stimulates into healthy action the whole Visceral System, which is engaged in the manufacture of the blood, hence the health of the whole system will follow, and a

LONG LIFE

with a healthy and cheerful mind—sure indications of a healthy body—can be obtained by the most delicate person, by thoroughly purging the blood in the Spring and Fall of the year, with

HALL'S SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK AND IODIDE OF POTASS.

Imitations,

Owing to the great and unparalleled success of the remedy, hundreds of unprincipled persons seek to palm off on the public, worthless trash called by the same name. The Genuine Hall's Sarsaparilla contains neither spirits, mercury or arsenic.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere for $1, and by the proprietors, Resolutions Adopted by the Democratic State Convention of Minnesota, July 2nd, 1862.

Resolved, That while we believe the war in which the United States is now engaged would have been averted by the adoption of those measures of conciliation and compromise submitted to Congress by Democrats and rejected by Republicans,—we also believe it is a war forced upon the country by the ambition of traitors, and we pledge the Democracy of Minnesota to support the Government in all lawful measures to restore the Union as it was and preserve the Constitution as it is.

Resolved, That we denounce the principles of Southern Secession and Northern Abolitionism as twin heresies, producing only hatred, strife and bloodshed; threatening the very existence of our National Government; at enmity with every principle of State Sovereignty and responsible for all the miseries of our distracted country.

Resolved, That the so-called Republican party, by surrendering itself into the hands of the radical abolitionists, whose declared purpose is to destroy the institution of slavery at whatever hazard to the existence of the Union, has forfeited all claim to be considered a national party, and its continuance as a dominant political power would be as fatal to the integrity of the Republic as in repeated instances, it has proved itself to be regardless of the restraints of the Constitution. We charge that party.

1. With a violation of the liberty of the citizen by consigning to prison without warrant of law many innocent and loyal men, and affording them no opportunity for defence.

2. With unjust and arbitrary restrictions upon the freedom of the press, by the suppression of loyal Journals, politically opposed to that party.

3. With instituting a rigid censorship of the press and of the telegraph lines, under the pretence of a military necessity, but really with the intention to prevent the people at large from obtaining such information of the actual condition of affairs, as would enable them to hold the political leaders of the dominant party responsible for the gross mal-administration of the government.

4. With unheard of corruptions in the management of the public finances, whereby according to the showing of members of their own party, nearly one hundred millions of dollars have been stolen by men high in office, or recklessly squandered through their means upon their political friends.

5. With initiating in Congress measures of confiscation and emancipation of extreme severity which must necessarily have the effect to drive Southern Union men in the ranks of the rebels, to concentrate and embitter the armed opposition to the Government, and thereby prolong the war.

6. With abandoning the traditional policy of the nation in conceding the right of search at a time and under circumstances which justify the assumption that it was a disgraceful truckling to the wishes, if not the dictation, of the British Government.

7. With an outrageous trifling with the lives of our noble volunteers, and with the public safety, by the appointment to high military position, in many cases, of political favorites utterly incompetent to perform their duties, or to lead their commands on the battle field.

8. With extravagance in every department of the Government, whereby the burden of National and State taxation is enormously and unnecessarily increased.

9. With a want of knowledge and ability to manage the affairs of the nation in its present condition of extreme peril and a complete falsification of its pledges to the country that the war should be prosecuted to reduce the rebellion, and preserve the Union as it was.

Resolved, That the high character and brave and gallant bearing of the differt regiments of volunteers from this State, have conferred great honor upon Minnesota, and justly merit the thanks of every citizen thereof.

GENEROUS CONFIDENCE MISPLACED.—A curious case (for San Francisco) came up for hearing before Judge Cowles in the Police Court yesterday. The complainant, one Jas. Mixter, an ex-billiard-table keeper, now of No. 411 Pine street, who, from his own testimony, appears to be a mixture of shrewdness and verdancy, swears that on Friday afternoon, having a few hours unoccupied time on his hands, he took a walk through the southern part of the city. While passing through Minnie street, between Third and Fourth, his attention was called by a lady who beckoned to him from her house upon the opposite side of the street. He went over to see what was wanted, entered the house and soon became deeply engaged in conversation with the fair occupant. She confidentially informed him that she was a single lady, but five months in the State, and was worth $1600. She had dresses of all colors, blue, black, grey, red, ye low and pink, except green. Green suited her complexion best, and on green she had set her heart. Would her dear friend Mixter make the hour of their first acquaintance ever green in the wreath of memory, by presenting her with a ten dollar green back to buy a green dress with? Dear Friend hurt her feelings by informing her that he felt flattered by this proof of her disinterested affection but was not green enough to be picked up in that shape. Affectionate female was cut to the raw by this exhibition of selfish disregard for the tenderest feelings of her nature, and declared she would die sooner than take a dollar of his money. Would he show his confidence in her disinterested affection by placing a ten dollar gold piece in the palm of her hand, thus proving that he was not afraid she would steal it? Dear Friend complied with this reasonable request, and the money rested on the unclosed hand in temporary safety. Good for dear Friend! Now would he go one step further and put one on the palm of her left hand? of course he would! and he did; when, presto change! One piece went into the inside of the terrible fabric used as a covering for the lady's nether continuations, yclept stocking, and an effort was made to transfer the other to the cavity in the top of her dress in front, but it slipped from her fingers and rolled on the floor. Dear friend attempted to get his money back, and did secure one of the pieces, but the lady eluded his grasp, opened a side door, and a third party, in the shape of the lady's husband, made his appearance and demanded by what right he came there and "insulted his wife." Dear Friend "advanced" out of the house in good order, and soon returned with a policeman, who arrested Fred. Bellmer and the lady, for robbery, and took them to the calaboose. Defence set up good character as an offset to the charge, and the case was continued until Monday for further testimony. San Francisco will soon be able to boast of all the evidences of advanced civilization seen by the traveler in the highest circles of New York society.—S. F. Call.

WASHOE CHATTING WITH CHICAGO.—On Sunday last Mr. Bloomer, telegraph operator in this city, chatted for some two hours with the operator in Chicago. We suppose Bloomer made the Chicago "feller" a present of a "feet or two in some "big thing."—Territorial Enterprise.

CÆSAR being asked by Brutus how many eggs he had eaten, for breakfast, answered, "Et tu Brute."

YOUNG women often keep their lovers by tears. Love, like beef, is preserved by brine.

NOUNS OF MULTITUDE.—A little girl was looking at the picture of a number of ships, when she exclaimed, "See what a flock of ships." We corrected her by saying that a flock of ships was called a fleet, and a fleet of sheep was called a flock. And here we may add, for the benefit of the foreigner who is mastering the intricacies of our language in respect to nouns of multitude, that a flock of girls is called a bevy, and a bevy of wolves is called a pack, and a pack of thieves is called a gang, and a gang of angels is called a host, and a host of porpoises is called a shoal, and a shoal of buffaloes is called a herd, and a herd of children is called a troop, and a troop of partridges is called a covey, and a covey of beauties is called a galaxy, and a galaxy of ruffians is called a horde, and a horde of rubbish is called a heap, and a heap of oxen is called a drove, and a drove of blackguards is called a mob, and a mob of whales is called o school, and a school of worshipers is called a congregation, and a congregation of engineers is called a corps, and a corps of robbers is called a band, and a band of locusts is called a swarm, and a swarm of people is called a crowd, and a crowd of gentlefolk is called the elite, and the elite of the city's thieves and rascals are called the roughs, and a miscellaneous crowd of city folks is called the community or the public, according as they are spoken of by the religious community or the secular public.

GOV. TODD, of Ohio, perceives that the arming of negroes will be offensive to white soldiers, and hence he taboos the suggestion in every shape and form. Intelligent negroes in Washington argue that those who insist upon arming the negroes, and placing them in front of the battle are not true friends of the colored race. The negroes who compose such regiment, driven into battle by the bayonets in their rear, will be exposed to slavery if captured, as well as to death and wounds. They contend that they would not have an equal chance with white soldiers, and would be more usefully occupied in ordinary industrial pursuits.

TURNERS'
Forest Wine Bitters,
The Greatest Remedy of the Age.

DYSPEPSIA,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF STOMACH,
Or derangement of the Digestive Organs.

"Turners' Forest Wine Bitters."

Are sure to regulate the stomach, the main avenue to the whole body;
Are sure to counteract Billiousness, when in a malarious climate;
Are sure to agree with the most weakly, as well as the most robust person;
Are sure to create a good appetite;
Are very pleasant to the taste as a beverage,
Are economical and cheap.
All travelers should carry these bitters with them, to prevent Billiousness and Fevers caused by change of climate and water.
Seamen should carry them to prevent Scurvy Ship Fever, and the like, when they are deprived of cooling, nutritious vegetables.

They are a very rich, nutritious Wine, formed by the addition of nine different kinds of roots, barks and herbs, making a very palatable as well as one of the most nourishing Bitters in the known world.

TURNERS' ESSENCE OF Jamacia Ginger!

This article, like the Ginger Wine, is carefully and elaborately prepared and selected from the best quality of articles. It possesses all the true properties of the JAMAICA GINGER, and we do not hesitate to warrant it to be free from any and every injurious or irritating properties.

It is not only harmless, but it is eminently beneficial in all cases where a warm Cordial or a grateful stimulant is required. Especially is this the dose when there is felt by the patient a sense of exhaustion, arising from either heat or fatigue. Under such circumstances a few drops taken in half a tumbler of water, with a little sugar, will be useful. It will be found in such cases a pleasant and effective restorative; on this account this essence is a highly important addition to the voyager and traveler's portmanteau. It is also important to the family collection of remedies for diseases.

When there is a great Nausea, of the Stomach, or Oppression of Spirits, arising from imperfect digestion, from riding in a carriage, or from the motion of a vessel at sea, this Essence if taken in accordance with the above directions will be found invariably to give relief.

In ordinary Diarrhœa, incipient Cholera, and indeed in all diseases by which the nervous system may become prostrated, and the digestive organs deranged, this Essence will be found most invaluable. TURNER BROTHERS,

SICK MEN AND WOMEN.
What Constitutes Health?

RICH PURE BLOOD, NATURAL PERSPIration, Good Appetite for Food, Sleep, Exercise and the enjoyments of Nature, with strength of Body, Mind and Limbs—Activity of the Liver, and all other Natural Functions; such a state is felt by all after using

Invigorating Cordial Sanguifier!

To many the above may seem extravagant praise of this concoction, but if they could see (as I have) the many whom this has restored to health, they would not be surprised at any language used in its praise. To offer more certificates is useless; at least eighty have already been published, and only the thick-headed, self-wise skeptic and unbeliever can doubt that it is the most blessed health-restorer and strength-giver ever invented by man. It restores and permanently invigorate the broken down system. Nay, more; it replaces natural weakness with strength. The desponding it revives, the feeble it endows with vigor, and the cheerfulness and strength which it restores or creates, it also preserves. To the sickly wife it imparts that degree of vital force necessary to the crowning joy and great object of matrimony. To the debilitated husband it gives the nervous and muscular energy which characterizes manhood. In all cases of nervous disease, low spirits, indigestion, liver complaint, indisposition to mental exertion, lassitude, emaciation, impotence, etc., in fact, in all complaints, acute ane chronis, which depress and weigh down the mind and body, it is an absolute, infallible specific.

Nature's Own Remedy for Man Sickness.

That creates, reproduces new and pure blood—that acts on the liver, heart, brain, intestines, limbs and chest—that revolutionizes the whole system—gives strength to the most debilitated and weak—that contains no mineral or other poison. Such is, in truth, DR. JACOB WEBBER'S JUSTLY FAMOUS INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER.

The extraordinary and strange cures effected by this beautiful herbal concoction, has astonished all. It seems to suit every constitution. THE OLD, THE FEEBLE, THE LANGUID, now feel new life and blood is given them. The roue, the dissipated debauchee, the weak from long disease, taking too much medicine, calomel and other mineral poisons; the young man whose manhood is wasted, where nature's functions are inert and lifeless, experiences the bliss of ROBUST AND VIGOROUS MANHOOD; his appetite is good, his sleep is quiet and refreshing, his mind and memory clear and certain.

☞ Sold in quart bottles by Reddington & Co., and Crane & Brigham, San Francisco, and all Druggists in California.

And by D. W. STRONG, Dutch Flat.

MATRIMONIAL.

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN, whose personal appearance, fortune, and position is A No. 1, wishes to unite himself to a lady with similar qualifications. The advertiser being sincere, will here describe himself; and although he is young in appearance, he will admit himself on the "shady side of fifty." The advertiser is of medium stature, neither too fat nor too lean; dark eyes and expressive countenance; and he must here confess he is vain in stating that he has t he most snowy white teeth, (natural ones,) hands, brow and skin as clear as a child's; his hair and whiskers are deep brown, and he can assure all that these latter beauties were given him by using for two months Lafont's West India Soap Teeth Root for his yellow teeth, and Jones' Coral Hair Restorative on his gray, coarse hair, and by shaving and washing with Jones' Italian Soap. His coarse, wrinkled skin and hands have thus been made white and clear. These beautiful articles can be had reasonacle at every drug store in California and Oregon.

MEDICAL.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,
LATE PROFESSOR OF THE UNIVERSITY PENNSYLVANIA.

Can be found at 751 Clay Street, opposite the Plaza Hotel, San Francisco, California.

Where he can be consulted privately and with the utmost confidence by the afflicted, at all hours, daily (from 9, A. M., until 8, P. M.) Cure guaranteed or no pay required. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE.

DR. J. C. YOUNG'S Private Medical and SURGICAL ESTABLISHMENT occupies the entire upper part of that new and spacious building No. 751 Clay Street, rendering it strictly private, with no fear of meeting other than those connected with the office, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of Private Diseases of whatever nature.

Dr. Young would call the attention of those requiring private treatment to the fact of its seclusion and perfect safety with which they can come and go without fear of interruption. The long practice of Dr. Young in the treatment of private diseases, and all irregularities peculiar to Females, has met with unprecedented success, and his well earned reputation so deservedly great renders the sufferers of both sexes able to judge of his capabilities. Dr. Young has taken this large buiding the better to afford his patients coming from a distance, and wishing a private residence all the comforts of a home. The Doctor would particularly call the attention of Ladies whom circumstances should render desirous of quiet and seclusion for a time, to his establishment where may be enjoyed all the necessary comforts of a Lying-in Hospital, with the advantage of Private Attendance and constant Medical attention.

Constitutional Debility.

DR. YOUNG addresses those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgence in that secret and solitary habit which ruin the body and mind, unfitting them either for business or society. The following are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, nervousness, irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c. MENTALLY, the fearful effects upon the mind are more to be dreaded. Loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are most of the evils produced.

All persons who are affected with any of the above symptoms should not fail to call on DR. YOUNG, and be at once restored to perfect health. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but immediately, go and save yourself from the dreadful and awful consequences of this terrible malady.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS immediately cured, and full vigor returned.

Advice to the Young.

YOUNG MAN, HAVE YOU CONTRACTED that terrible disease, which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life? Do not trust yourself in the hands of those mushroom Quacks that start up every day and fill the papers with abominable falsehoods, too well calculated to deceive the young and those not "posted up" in the tricks of the foreign and domestic imposters.

You cannot be too careful in the selection of a Physician, or a remedy, in these cases. You should apply to a man who has had ample experience, and possesses true skill in the treatment thereof. Such a Physician is Dr. J C YOUNG, who has treated and cured more cases of such diseases than any one man living to day, in this or any other country. His offices were the first that were opened in this city for the exclusive treatment of private diseases. His different publications have been republished in almost every country in Europe, and are now acknowledged as standard works, by our own medical colleges, and the profession throughout the country.

Dr, YOUNG, by recent improvements in the healing art, is enabled to effect cures in a few days, without mercury, or change of diet, under a challenge of Five Thousand Dollars!

Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should consult Dr. Young.

Young Men,

Especially who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytic and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves, with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings, and cure them for a moderate compensation. Indeed, he who places himself under the care of Dr. J. C. YOUNG, may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician, acknowledged by all the wealthiest and most respectable portion of our inhabitants.

Office, 751 Clay street, opposite the Plaza Hotel, Plaza.

Great Female Medicine!
The Greatest Discovery of this, or any other Age

DR. YOUNG'S PREVENTIVE POWDERS, for married ladies. These Powders will be found of essential value to those whose means, health or other circumstances do not permit them to increase the number of their family without great inconvenience, suffering, or perhaps risk of life. This preparation is new, safe, infallible, convenient, simple, and cannot injure the health of the most delicate. Nor does it curtail matrimonial privileges in the least. Morally considered, this preparation is of the highest utility, and sustained by the soundest principles of prudence, economy and virtue. It shows how a chemical effect may be produced, scientifically, and without injury to the constitution, which thousands attempt to accomplish by the most unwise and dangerous means, operations, &c. Young married people, whose circumstances do not warrant too rapid an increase of family, will find this preparation most valuable.

To those who feel that their physical condition and health is totally unfit for them to become the mothers of numerous offspring, and who reasonably fear that each period of confinement will terminate their existance, will hail the discovery of this certain means of relief with unbounded joy. Let such unfortunate and unhappy wives lose no time in obtaining this medicine, it will be to them a precious boon through life, and prevent many an early and premature grave.

That all may avail themselves of the PREVENTIVE Dr. Young has fixed the price at $10, which carefully used will last six months. Upon the receipt of the $10 a package of the PREVENTIVE, with full directions for use will be forwarded by Mail or Express to any part of the State.

The French Lunar, OR FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS.—The best remedy ever discovered for suppressed menses in females. They are safe and sure, acting in the most efficient and easy manner possible, never creating sickness, but renovating the system, at the same time that they remove any obstruction which may impede, for the time, the natural flow of the menses. No family should be without a box in the ceuse, as they greatly assist in the delivery, at maturity, of the child. They should not be taken under some circumstances in the early stages of pregnancy which will appear plain to ladies.

Price, $5 00 per box, with full directions, sent to any part of the Pacific coast upon receipt of the money. Address DR. J. C. YOUNG, 751 Clay Street, San Francisco.
